

Amanda Terry, Director of Legal Services and Legislative Liaison

Amanda Terry is the Director of Legal Services and Legislative Liaison for the State of Tennessee Bureau of Worker’s Compensation. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of North Alabama with a double major in French and Public Communications. Amanda later studied law at Mississippi College School of Law in Jackson, Mississippi. Ms. Terry was in private practice before joining the Bureau as a mediator. Since joining the Bureau in 2015, she has been a mediator for Mediation and Ombudsman Services of Tennessee and an attorney for the Compliance Program. She is a graduate of both LEAD Tennessee and the Tennessee Government Executive Institute. In 2017 she became Director of Compliance for the Bureau, and in 2022 she became the Director of Legal Services and Legislative Liaison.