

Christine S. Hughes, ARM
Sr. Manager – Americas Risk Management
Nissan North America, Inc.

RISK MANAGER

A trusted risk management professional with twenty years of experience and a proven track record in consistently lowering total cost of risk . Responsible for extensive insurance programs and affiliated risk management services for a large array of companies ranging from petrochemicals to automotive manufacturing, construction, solar and adhesives. Driven to ensure the company and its employees are protected from unexpected financial or physical loss due to a fortuitous event and that risk tolerance is properly addressed. Combined tenure has lent to the development of highly proficient and practical hands-on capabilities in all facets of insurance and risk management.

SKILLS

- Property (including Builder's Risk) and Casualty Insurance Procurement
- Claim Management; Captive, Litigation, OCIP, Catastrophic and Toxic Tort claims
- Insurance Budgeting and Claim Reserves
- Safety and Loss Control strategy development