

Madison is an associate in Carr Allison's Chattanooga (TN) office. She is admitted to practice in Tennessee and focuses her practice on defending matters involving general litigation, premises liability, workers' compensation and personal injury.

Madison graduated from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga with a Bachelor of Science degree in business finance. She went on to earn her Juris Doctor from the University of Memphis (TN). While there, she was a member of the National Moot Court Travel Team and American Inns of Court. She was also a member of the ABA Moot Court Travel Team, where she was a national quarter finalist and was the 6th best advocate at Nationals. Madison served as chief justice of the Moot Court Board, professional liaison for the student chapter of the Association for Women Attorneys and co-treasurer of the student chapter of the Federal Bar Association.

Madison is a Chattanooga (TN) native and enjoys baking and going on bike rides with her husband in her free time.