

Morgan Bui, Director of Risk Analytics, North America, Commercial Risk – Aon

As a part of the global Data & Analytics team, Morgan supports the Head of Risk Analytics, North America in the embedding and adoption of Aon's Risk Analytics into Aon's Commercial Risk broking, consulting and client experience. Before her current role, Morgan served as a Vice President in Aon's Financial Services Group, where she advised global financial institutions on the management and optimization of their Directors & Officers, Errors & Omissions, Employment Practices, Fidelity (Crime), and Fiduciary liability programs. Morgan first began working in the industry as a financial lines underwriter at Validus Specialty in 2017. Morgan earned her Master of Business Administration from Columbia Business School and graduated summa cum laude from Saint Joseph's University, where she double majored in Finance and Risk Management and Insurance.